

Charlie Bronston's fearless and patriotic fight for his party, on the floor of the Senate and in the joint sessions for two months, has endeared him to the Democrats of Kentucky. Gossel planned, Bronston executed and Martin, Sims, McChord, Gross and Fulton were always on hand to back up the leaders. Each of them did his part well, but "The Red-Headed Rooster from the Bluegrass" was the real fighting cock, ever ready, always galled and spoiling for a fight. He was smart enough, brave enough and loyal enough to his party to thwart the Republicans and their "found money" allies at every turn and it is due to him more than any other one man that a Republican was not elected to the Senate. Good boy, Charlie. If you don't see what you want, ask for it.

Between negro rule and bayonet rule, the State of Kentucky is already hanging her head in shame, and we have hardly had a hundred days of Bradleyism. It is a pity that every fool Democrat who helped to elect him was not ordered to tote a gun. As it was, the State Guards, most of them loyal Democrats, were required to do the dirty work for our small calibre Riot Alarm Governor, and humiliate themselves by disgracing their State. And to think that Col. Castleman, a member of the State Democratic Committee, should have been forced to take part in the lawless proceedings for which Bradley was publicly rebuked by the Senate! But Louisville has no right to complain. Her newspapers and her voters did it.

It is understood that Hon. Malcolm Yeaman, of Henderson, will be a candidate for the office of Judge of the Court of Appeals to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Grace. There is no able man or better jurist in the district than Judge Yeaman. He is a man of high character and wide experience as an attorney and his election would be an honor to the district.—Grand Rivers Herald.

If Assistant Adjutant General Walter Forrester did anything more warlike during the late invasion of the State Capitol that to act as war correspondent for the Louisville Commercial, we failed to note it in the reports from the front. Gen. Forrester did not draw his sword. In fact he drew nothing more dangerous than his salary.

The Paducah Standard will change hands April 1. It will be sold by Dilday & Van Selden to Edward O. Leigh, Clint B. Leigh and James E. Wilhelm. The Messrs. Leigh are the founders of the Standard and both will drop back gracefully into Paducah journalism. The new firm will make the paper one of the best of the Kentucky papers.

The Senate rejected the nomination of Porter, the negro doctor from Louisville, to be third assistant physician at Lakeland. If Bradley really wants negro rule as well as bayonet rule, he can now appoint Porter until the end of the next session of the Senate without his having to be confirmed.

Jackson and Walling, who murdered and decapitated Pearl Bryan in Newport, Ky., on the night of Jan. 31, have at last been removed from the Cincinnati jail to that at Newport. They are under indictment and will be tried in this State. There is no danger of mob violence.

The first speech of the legislature, that nominating Blanford for speaker, and the final motion to adjourn were both made by Cy Brown. He was the Alpha and Omega of the only Republican Legislature the State has ever had, although he did not make himself as conspicuous as some of his less modest political associates.

The Republicans have changed the place of their State Convention from Lexington to Louisville, for the avowed purpose of getting away from Bronston and Dunlap.

Democrats who voted for Bradley because they wanted a change, have got what they wanted.

"The close friends" of Jno. G. Carlisle have formally declared him the administration's candidate for President. And the KENTUCKIAN, which is a close friend of the Kentucky Democracy, with the same formality hereby declares itself against him.

Gov. Bradley has vetoed the bill allowing the attorney general a stenographer, on the ground that the State is in debt and new offices should not be created. How about the office of Dictator, at an expense of $1,000 a day?

The British troops in Egypt have started from Cairo to Wady-Halfa and will begin a vigorous campaign in the Soudan the first of April. Dongola will be the objective point.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

THE ELEVENTH OF APRIL. Republicans Hold Their Convention in Three Weeks.

The Republican District Committee of the Second district met here yesterday and after a long wrangle settled upon April 11 as the time and Madisonville as the place for nominating a candidate for Congress.

Sobres and Franks, candidates for Congress, were on hand and the committee was four to four on some questions that came up. In such cases Chairman A. H. Anderson, the member from this county, gave this proxy as county committeeman to his son, and then himself voted to break the ties. Both candidates seemed to want an early convention and they were gratified.

The same convention will elect district delegates to the St. Louis convention.

Our Chicken-Hearted Governor.

Frankfort, Ky., March 17.—In spite of the Governor's declaration that he does not fear personal violence, five uniformed guards are on patrol about the Executive Mansion.

The news that the Governor's Mansion is under guard has caused new indignation among the citizens of Frankfort. They say there is not a man in town that would harm a hair of the Governor's head, and he knows it.

The placing of militiamen to prevent personal violence is regarded as a new insult. Vehement expressions are being used in denouncing this new move.

Adj. Gen. Collier says that the presence of the militia about the Governor's mansion is merely the result of a general order to put the soldiers on picket duty in all public places and that he is sure that they are not there at the request of the Governor.

Appellate Judges Stay Away.

Frankfort, Ky., March 16.—The Judges of the Court of Appeals refused to meet at the Statehouse today or any other day while the militia is there. The Judges are holding a session in Chief Justice Pryor's room at the Capital Hotel to-day. The movement of the court meets with the approval of all the Judges, but was led by Chief Justice Pryor, who refused to even go to the Statehouse as long as the militia was there.

About the only soldier who appears to have risked his life at Frankfort was Col. E. H. Gaither, who ventured near enough to Jack Chinn to speak to him.

It took $5,000 and 400 soldiers to suppress three Kentucky colonels and keep Bradley's hair from standing on end.

The more one judges, the less one loves.

What Shall I Do?

In the earnest, almost agonizing cry of weak, tired, nervous women, and crowded, overworked, struggling men. Slight difficulties, ordinary cares, household work or daily labor, magnify themselves into seemingly impassable mountains.

This is simply because the nerves are weak, the bodily organs debilitated, and they do not

TWO PAPERS FOR THE PRICE OF ONE.

A Weekly Paper as a Premium to Every New Subscriber.

On and after this date, March 3rd, every new subscriber to the semi-weekly Kentuckian for one year in advance will be given a weekly paper as a premium without additional cost. This is an offer never before made by a paper in Hopkinsville. It is a proposition not confined to one paper alone, but we give subscribers their choice of several first class city weeklies of established reputation.

The plan is simple and easily understood. Every new subscriber who pays $2 for a year's subscription to the Kentuckian, or every old subscriber who pays up all arrearages to date and for a year in advance, will be given any one of the following papers free for one year:

THE WEEKLY CINCINNATI ENQUIRER.
THE WEEKLY EVANSVILLE COURIER.
THE WEEKLY WASHINGTON POST.
THE WEEKLY MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL-APPEAL.

These are all first class papers, covering the entire news field, and any one of them taken in connection with the Kentuckian will give the subscriber a full range of general and local information.

This proposition, it must be understood, applies only to future subscribers. We cannot of course send these premium papers to subscribers already paid up before the club lists were arranged. Nor can we send them free to any but subscribers for a whole year. It is possible that other papers may be added to this club list, but for the present the subscriber must choose one of the four papers mentioned above. We do not offer to give away any paper not in our free club list. The proposition is not for an indefinite period, but we reserve the right to withdraw it at any time.

The Kentuckian is recognized as the best newspaper published in Christian or adjoining counties. It is the largest semi-weekly in Kentucky and in character, influence and stability is second to no country paper in the State. It is now in its 18th year and is firmly established in the confidence of the public and the good opinion of its readers. It is published from its own building on Main street, the handsomest newspaper office in Western Kentucky. It gives the news without fear or favor. Its reports of the tobacco markets are accurate and reliable, special attention being given to this department. It is well printed on good paper with clean new type and presents an attractive appearance, being a six-column quarto. Sample copies sent to any address on application. If you are not a subscriber you ought to be. Now is the time to begin. Three papers a week for two dollars a year.
